

ALL CRITTERS & PETS FREEZE DRY PRESERVATION CONTRACT FOR SERVICES

This agreement is a contract between All Critters & Pets Freeze Dry and _____, referred to hereafter as Pet Owner for pet preservation services of _____, referred to hereafter as pet.

The pet preservation process will include the removal of internal organs. This process is necessary to ensure a properly preserved pet.

Positioning (i.e. placement of legs, mouth, head, etc) will be based upon pictures and/or written instructions provided by Pet Owner to All Critters & Pets Freeze Dry.

All Critters & Pets Freeze Dry will utilize written and photograph instructions to recreate the living poses of pets. However, there are certain facial expressions that are unique to the pet and cannot be duplicated perfectly. Position of your pet may vary slightly when the actual posing is complete. Pet Owner understands and assumes risk.

After All Critters & Pets Freeze Dry receives deposit for pet preservation services and completed contract for services, the pet will be processed and positioned.

* If the Pet Owner wishes to have photographs sent via e-mail prior to placement in the freeze-dry, arrangements will be made at this time.

 Remaining balance will be due prior to pet being placed in the freeze-dryer.

After the pet has been placed in the freeze-dryer, Pet Owner understands that the positioning of the pet cannot be changed.

Certain conditions cannot be rectified by All Critters & Pets Freeze Dry. These conditions may affect the physical appearance of the pet and are the Pet Owner's risk.

1. Significant weight loss prior to death.
2. Hair loss that includes shaving for medical treatment of pet prior to death (i.e. shaved forearms for IVs, bandages, etc).
3. Significant trauma.

Due to discrepancies in drying times between animals, Pet Owner understands that the time frame of pet preservation given upon initial consultation by All Critters & Pets Freeze Dry is an estimate and may vary.

Pet Owner will be contacted via telephone and e-mail when pet has completed the pet preservation process.

All Critters & Pets Freeze Dry recommends that pet be placed in a glass case to preserve and protect the pet when it is returned to Pet Owner.

I have had the opportunity to ask any questions about pet preservation and this contract for services. I agree to the terms and conditions of the above stated process.
